Website: www.fontys.nl

Are you a fourth year student at Fontys University of Applied Sciences ? Have you ever heard about entrepreneurship projects? Are you wondering what is an entrepreneurship project and what is the goal of it? Then, this website is made for you!

This project has been created to make a selection of every entrepreneurship project that has been done so far. On Fontys website, you can see the abstracts of all projects including pictures and grades. Furthermore a hall of fame is made to present the best projects. Thanks to this page you can get a better idea about what the teachers expect you to do and how to create your own project. Besides, it gives you the possibility to see which projects have been made and to possibly make them even better...

And now, let your imagination (work) free(ly) !
